

September 7, 2021
Bloomfield, Iowa
Courthouse Courtroom
8:30 A.M.

The Davis County Board of Supervisors met in regular session on Tuesday, September 7, 2021, with Chairman Matt Greiner and Members Alan Yahnke and Ron Bride present.

Alan Yahnke made motion, seconded by Ron Bride and carried unanimously, to approve the agenda.

Ron Bride made motion, seconded by Alan Yahnke and carried unanimously, to approve and sign the Minutes of Monday, August 30, 2021.

The Board met with custodian Randy Norman, who stated that the courthouse accessibility construction project is to begin today, with the demolition of the stairwell entry shelter on the north side of the building, along with the lawnmower shed. He has emptied the contents of both and moved all items to another location.

The Board met with Engineer Ryan Schock, who reported on work being done by the County crews. Other contracted crews are planning to set beams and decking this week on the Cedar bridge, after a rain delay last week.

The Board met with Dale Taylor, representing the Pioneer Cemetery Commission, to request permission to place signs directing the public to the historic marker recently placed at the Mound Cemetery on the Mormon Trail. No action was taken at this time, but will be addressed at the next meeting.

The Board met with John Schroeder from Davis County Development Corporation, who provided updates on several ongoing projects, including educational programs being held and others being explored.

Ron Bride made motion, seconded by Alan Yahnke and carried unanimously, to approve a resolution for an administrative transfer of funds, from the American Rescue Plan Act Fund to a Capital Project fund, for more specific tracking of the federal grant money.

Permission was requested by the Bloomfield Main Street organization for use of the courtyard on Saturday, September, 25, 2021, for their Fall Festival. Alan Yahnke made motion, seconded by Ron Bride and carried unanimously to approve.

All Board members reported on committee meetings attended.

Alan Yahnke made motion, seconded by Ron Bride and carried unanimously, to approve the following claims to be paid:
