Bloomfield, Iowa
Courthouse Courtroom
8:30 A.M.

The Davis County Board of Supervisors met in regular session on Monday, November 1, 2021, with Chairman Matt Greiner and Members Alan Yahnke and Ron Bride present.

Ron Bride made motion, seconded by Alan Yahnke and carried unanimously, to approve the agenda, minus the item regarding the Mutchler Center, which will be postponed.

Alan Yahnke made motion, seconded by Ron Bride and carried unanimously, to approve and sign the Minutes of Monday, October 25, 2021.

During the time for public comments, a county resident requested more rock for an area on 170th Street.

The Board met with Engineer Ryan Schock, who reported that he will be having a meeting with Norris Asphalt this week, to finalize plans for the resurfacing project to take place yet this fall. He expects them to begin the multiple road project on Nuthatch Avenue (Bike Barn Road).

The Board met with Tom Prosapio and Chris Sutton, from Christner Contracting, for a report on the Courthouse Accessibility project. The concrete driveway work has started as well as the building construction. They expect to soon begin the revision of the electrical transformer wiring.

Karen Spurgeon, representing the Bloomfield Main Street organization, met with the Board to request use of the Courtyard for placing Christmas decorations. Alan Yahnke made motion, seconded by Ron Bride and carried unanimously, to approve the request.

All Board members reported on committee meetings attended.

Ron Bride made motion, seconded by Alan Yahnke and carried unanimously, to approve the following claims to be paid:
