The Davis County Board of Supervisors met in regular session on Monday, October 25, 2021, with Chairman Matt Greiner and Members Alan Yahnke and Ron Bride present.

Alan Yahnke made motion, seconded by Ron Bride and carried unanimously, to approve the agenda.

Alan Yahnke made motion, seconded by Ron Bride and carried unanimously, to approve and sign the Minutes of Monday, October 18, 2021.

The Board met with Felicia Campbell, representing the Troy Park Board and the Troy Academy organizations. She requested permission to use the County as a “pass-through” fiscal agent, to apply for grant money for both organizations in the amounts of $7,000 and $10,000 respectively. Alan Yahnke made motion, seconded by Ron Bride and carried unanimously to approve said use.

The Board met with Engineer Ryan Schock, who provided details on County crew work, including patching the edges of the blacktop south of Pulaski, in preparation for a seal coat layer to be done next year. He also reported that Bloomfield Bridge and Culvert is continuing work this week for the bridge on 245th St.

The Board met with Tom Prosapio and Chris Sutton, from Christner Contracting, for a report on the Courthouse Accessibility project. Tom also sought approval, by the Board, for project “change orders” in the amount of $40,795.51. Ron Bride made motion, seconded by Alan Yahnke and carried unanimously, to approve.

Alan Yahnke made motion, seconded by Ron Bride and carried unanimously, to approve the Cost Allocation Report for the Department of Human Services expenditures, generated by Cost Advisory Services, Inc.

Alan Yahnke made motion, seconded by Ron Bride and carried unanimously, to approve the annual Weed Commissioner’s report, compiled by Davis County Conservation Director Josh Batterson.

All Board members reported on committee meetings attended.
