Bloomfield, Iowa
Courthouse Boardroom
8:30 A.M.

The Davis County Board of Supervisors met in regular session on Monday, May 12, 2025 with Chairman Alan Yahnke and Members Ron Bride and David Henderson present.

David Henderson made motion, seconded by Ron Bride and carried unanimously, to approve the agenda.

Ron Bride made motion, seconded by David Henderson and carried unanimously, to approve and sign the Minutes of Monday, May 5, 2025.

The Board met with County Conservation Director, Logan Faler, who requested to hire one temporary, part-time employee for the summer who will help with mowing and weed eating duties. David Henderson made motion, seconded by Ron Bride and carried unanimously, to approve the hiring of one County Conservation temporary, part-time employee with a $12.00 per hour rate of pay.

The Board met with Engineer Ryan Schock, who reported on blading, rock hauling and ditching work being completed by the County crews. He also reported the need to communicate with a citizen regarding said citizen's planting of crops in the county right-of-way. He further reported being in contact with Sheriff Zach Dunlavy regarding vandalism on Nuthatch Avenue.

Dave Henderson made motion, seconded by Ron Bride and carried unanimously, to approve Rathbun Rural Water Association's utility permit for Isaac Martin.

The Board then discussed this coming Thursday's (May 15, 2025 at 10:00 a.m.) public auction of the building, some adjoining real estate and various items of personal property at the location locally known as the "The County Home". No action was taken.

The Board discussed the progress of repair work from water damage caused by a broken water piper in February. No action was taken.

Alan Yahnke reported having attended a Pathfinders' meeting this week where it was announced that Pathfinders would be partnering with other organizations to open a daycare facility, formerly known as Davis County Daycare. Pathfinders will act as the fiscal agent for said facility.

David Henderson made motion, seconded by Ron Bride and carried unanimously, to approve the following claims to be paid:
